Commercial and Money Matters.

FRIDAY, March 21. There was a fair business done at the Board to-day. Kentacky fell off 1; Ohio 6s 1. Bank of Commerce, full, improved 1.

Sterling has rather a firm appearance; small sales at 5% a 8. A few very favorite blils sold at 61. Frances 5 45 a 8 424 The amount of Alabama offering is very small. The rate is about 18 a 20 disc. At Mobile, 14th, bills on New-York, 60 days, 16 a 161; do 50 ds 161 a 19; do sight 171 a 18. The market opened rather firm, but as the day advanced rates became unsteady, and a decline of a per cent was realized on Sterilog bills, N York checks and specie.

We have received information of the suspension of the Oswego Bank. On Monday, the 15th inst. Hon. David P. Brewster, was elected President, in the room of Alanson Douglass, Esq resigned. On Saturday there was something of a run on the Bank, in consequence of distrust and dissatisfaction in the community, and on Monday, the 20th, after standing a run, mostly from depositors, a few hours, the Directors passed a resolution to suspend. It is understood that the circulation of the Bank is about $ 0,000, its deposits about $20,000 and its other liabilities about $30,000. making in all $100,000; and that it has good bills receivable to the amount of its liabilities, irrespertive of doubtful debts. and real estate. The morchants of Oswego are taking the bills at par for goods. The following was the condition of the Bank according to the last report to the Bank Commissioners:

It appears to have reduced its circulation and deposits, but as we do not know the present amount of specie funds we cannot tell how the reduction has been accomplished. It declared no dividend last year. The Directors' Hability as principals was $31,225; as sureiles $9,950. New counterfeit $20 notes on the State Bank of Indiana are in circulation in Cincinnati. They are dated May 1. 1839; payable at the Lafayette branch, to E. Dening; signed R. Millikin. Cashier; S. Merrill, President. The Philadelphia papers are down on the Northampton

Bank like several thousand of bricks. There has been Heb game played in this concern. A sple of $1000 of Maryland 6 per cents was made at suction at Baltimore on Tuesday at 434 a 45 per cent.

The Maryland Issurance Co. has declared a dividend of $60 per share on the capital stock and profits, payable to the stockholders in Bank of Baltimore stock in the proportion of one fifth share of Bank stock to each there of the Company's stock, and the balance in cash. The Michigan Insurance Co. which was enjoined from issning bills by the Chancellor has been granted banking powers by the Legislature. The Bank of Cairo has made an assignment of all its effects and gone into liquidation, and the Legislature bas repealed its act of incorporation. Arrangements, we understand, are making to redeem its notes now in circula tion, at par, in payment of property now at Cairo; that city being the principal debtor to the Bank.

City Entelligence.

FRIDAY, March 24.

CIRCUIT COURT .- Before Judge KENT. James Haughey vs. Richard Varian -Assault and battery lamages laid at $2,000 -The defendant is a brother of our ex-Mayor and present Senator, and, necessarily, much connected in political affairs. The plaintiff was about to be nominated as constable of the 12th Ward at the last year's spring election. Varian met him at Unity Hall, corner of 21st street and the Bowery, and told him he would make a pretty officer, &c. Haughey said something in reply, when high words ensued, and Varian first took hold of his rose, then struck him a violent blow, which knocked him down, and followed up the assault afterwards. Varian is a powerful man, and the note of plaintiff was fractured by the blow, and he bled very much. Verdict for plaintiff, $125.

Daniel C. Kingsland and Ambrose C. Kingsland vs. Augustus F. Carman and Eccles Gillender .- Action to recover the amount of two bonds of $2,000 each, with penalty to don le the amount. The defence was noury. The defendants being desirous of having the testimony of plaintiffs put in an affidavit in the plea. The affidavit, however, said they believed usury to have been exercised. The Court, after argument, held that the affidavits, to answer the usury law, and compel plaintiffs to testify, must state positively that usury had been taken. The defendants having no other witnesses, were unable to present proof of usury. Verdict

MARINE COURT .- Before Judge HAMMOND. Andrew G. Cramford vs. William G. Wood -Action to recover $100 asserted to be due for the mason-work in building a house on 3d Avenue, near 122d street. The defendant contended that he made verbal agreement for $525, and had over-paid. The jury reversed the matter, and gave verdict for defendant of $10 75.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER .- Before Judge KENT and Ald. WOODHULL and CARMAN. Benjamin Slater, the colored man against whom an indict ment for arson in the first degree was found the previou-day, was arraigned, and put in a plea of not guilty. His trial was put down for Wednesday next. THE SOMERS CASE.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA .- Mr. Philip R. Capen, of Windam, comes to add another to the many testim in als is favor if Sands's Sarsaparilla. His wife has been for nearly two cears troubled with an indolent swelling under her tongue, which was so large as to impede her swallowing, and much which was so large as to impede her swallowing, and mitch affect her speech. It was frequently opened and discharged large quantities of very offensive matter. She had also the Erysipelas, accompanied with extensive dropsical enlargement, attended with darting pains, so severe as to disturb and much of the time totally deprive her of rest. One of her arms was so stiff and painful as to render it almost oseless. Under all these afflictions, by the advice of her physician she used this valuable article, which almost immedisician she used this valuable article, which almost immedi-ately relieved the pain and lameness, removed the swelling and disease under the tongue, and so reduced the dropsical enlargement as to leave her dress nearly a quarter of a yard too large around the waist; the swelling of the limbs, which was very distressing and troublesome, has also been re-For particulars see advertisements in this and other city-
